Greetings Community Members and Business Associates –

The Salinas Valley Chamber of Commerce is proud to announce Salinas Valley Speaks, an exclusive regional event taking place on Thursday, August 6, 2026. This dynamic gathering will bring together community leaders and business professionals from diverse industries for a meaningful conversation focused on the future of healthcare in the Salinas Valley.

The evening will begin with a casual networking mixer, followed by an engaging and impactful panel discussion featuring regional voices and perspectives. This year's distinguished speakers include:

- Rena Salamacha, Mee Memorial Healthcare System
- Chad Harris, MD, Natividad Medical Center
- Mike McDermott, MD, MBA, Montage Health
- Allen Radner, MD, Salinas Valley Health

The panel will be moderated by District 3 Supervisor Chris Lopez. Salinas Valley Speaks is designed to foster regional collaboration, spotlight economic development initiatives, and address the key issues and challenges shaping our local economy.

Sponsorship opportunities are available. Space is limited, and tickets are expected to sell quickly. We encourage you to reserve your spot by registering early.

We look forward to your participation in this important regional conversation.

Sincerely,

Colleen Bailey
President & CEO
